INDEX
1820 Appling County, Georgia, U.S. Census

Though the names appear exactly as they appear in the original census in the preceding pages, insofar as it was possible to decipher them, and with considerable study of the names, the following alphabetized list, index to this census, gives the name as it should have been spelled as determined from other records and knowledge of the families who lived in Appling County. (See references given herein).

The number shown after the name is the page of the census on which this name appears, and there are three pages to each page of this typescript, beginning with page three and ending with page 15.
